

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
SASKATCHEWAN FIELD HUSBANDRY
ASSOCIATION.

As amended July 1, 1925.

Article I.

Name.

The name of this organization shall be "Saskatchewan Field Husbandry Association."

Article II

Object.

The object of this organization shall be to try out improved seeds, various crops and methods of growing crops, to co-operate with the Canadian Seed Growers' Association in the increase and dissemination of good seeds and to disseminate information relative to crop improvement.

Article III.

Membership.

Section 1. Fees.

Any person or corporation interested in crop improvement in Saskatchewan may become a member of this association by payment of an initial fee of one dollar ($1.00) and a like payment of one dollar ($1.00) per calendar year thereafter. All annual dues shall become due on January 2nd each year, beginning with the calendar year 1926, and members' names shall be dropped from the roll if dues for the current year remain unpaid December 15, 1926 and each year thereafter. Members listed at the date of adoption of this amendment shall pay no initiation fee. Their first payment of dues shall be for the year 1926.

Section 2. Honorary Membership.

Honorary membership may be conferred upon any person who is recognized as having performed some signal service in the improvement of field husbandry in Saskatchewan by unanimous vote of members present at the annual meeting of this society. Honorary members are exempted from payment of dues.

Section 3. Special Mailing List

A special mailing list including all secretaries of Agricultural Societies and such other officials as it may seem desirable to keep informed of the work of this association shall be maintained at the secretary's office, separate and distinct from the membership roll.

Article IV

Officers.

Section 1.

The officers of this Association shall be an Honorary President, a President, a First, a Second and a Third Vice-president and a Secretary-Treasurer, the same to constitute the Executive of this Association.

Section 2.

The duties of the officers shall be such as usually fall to their respective positions.

Section 3.

All officers, except Secretary-Treasurer shall be elected by vote of the members, the method of voting to be determined by the Executive.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall be the Senior Professor of Field Husbandry, University of Saskatchewan, or a member of the Field Husbandry Department of the said University appointed by him, subject to the approval of the Executive.

Section 4.

The term of office shall be two years. The first group shall consist of President, Honorary President and Third Vice-President. The second group shall consist of the First and Second Vice Presidents. The officers of the second group shall be elected for a term of one year. Upon expiration of this term their successors shall be elected for a term of two years as above specified.

Article V.

Miscellaneous.

Section 1.

The Executive shall have authority to call meetings, approve memberships and to carry on the general business of the Association.

Section 2.

This constitution may be amended in accordance with the following procedure:

Any member who wishes to submit an amendment may lay the same before the President who will present it to the other members of the Executive for examination and approval. Within one year after such approval, the Executive shall submit the amendment to the members for approval. If a majority of votes cast favor the amendment the same shall be added to and become a part of this constitution,

Section 3.

A quorum of the Executive shall consist of three members.

Section 4.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall be regarded as a voting member of the Executive.

Section 5.

The President of the Association shall, upon the written request of ten percent of the listed members, call a general meeting of the Association.